Ohio Gubernatorial Candidates

Mike DeWine and Richard Cordray are still polling neck and neck in a very close race to be the next Ohio Governor. This is the second time DeWine and Cordray have gone head to head. In 2010 the two sparred for the position of Attorney General, which DeWine ultimately won. The path to their party nomination saw Cordray beating out 3 Democrat opponents. DeWine was able to head off a challenge by the current Lt. Governor Mary Taylor.

Ohio Supreme Court Candidates

Ohio will be electing 2 Justices to the Ohio Supreme Court next week. While Supreme Court candidates run without party identification, parties do endorse in these races. Sitting Justice Mary DeGenaro was appointed by Governor Kasich and is endorsed by the Republicans. She is running against Michael Donnelly. In the second race the Democrat endorsed candidate Melody Stewart will face off against Craig Baldwin, the Republican endorsed candidate.
