

You're Invited: ACEC Ohio Annual Meeting – June 12, 2025

Join your peers and fellow leaders from across the engineering industry for the ACEC Ohio Annual Meeting on Thursday, June 12, 2025, at Vitria on the Square, 14 E. 15th Ave., Columbus, OH 43201. This is an event you won't want to miss—designed to inform, connect, and energize our membership as we look ahead to the future of engineering in Ohio and beyond.

The day will begin with our Quarterly Board of Directors Meeting, followed by the State of the Association address, providing important updates on ACEC Ohio's initiatives, advocacy efforts, and priorities.

Lunch will feature a compelling keynote presentation from Michael Feuz of ITR Economics, one of the country's most respected economic forecasting firms. With over a decade of experience in technology and data-driven consulting, Michael brings clear, actionable insights that help businesses make informed strategic decisions.

In today's volatile economic environment, understanding economic trends is essential to the business of engineering. Whether it's the impact of federal tariffs, shifts in private sector investment, or tax policy—these economic forces shape demand, timelines, and opportunities in the built environment.

Michael will provide a data-backed look at the economic headwinds and tailwinds affecting our industry. From inflationary pressures to supply chain dynamics, labor force shifts, and sector-specific forecasts, his insights will help you and your firm plan with confidence.

Whether you're a business owner, project manager, or emerging leader, this event is your chance to gain a competitive edge, stay informed, and connect with Ohio's engineering community.

Mark your calendar for June 12, beginning at 9am. If you can only join us for the lunch, that is OK arrive at 11am for networking with the program beginning at 11:30am.

We are seeking sponsorships to offset the cost of the program, please contact Lexi Francis for more information. Lexi.Francis@acecoho.org

We look forward to seeing you in Columbus!
