Transform the Future – Bridging Academia & Industry

Panel Discussion: Deans' Perspectives on Programs & Partnerships

Join us in celebrating Engineer's Week 2026! Hear directly from Engineering Deans from across Ohio's universities as they share insight into their programs and how they are preparing the next generation of engineers and responding to the evolving industry needs and technologies. This session offers a look at the future of engineering programs, emerging academic priorities, opportunities for collaboration, and how universities are equipping graduates to succeed. Gain valuable insight into the future of engineering and how you can help shape it.
